JUST A LINE OR TWO WITH YOU

By C. L. B.

JUST ONE year ago today.

TWO OF my friends

GOT MARRIED.

AND A big crowd.

WAS DOWN at the station.

TO BID them farewell.

AND HIT them on the head.

WITH OLD shoes.

AND OTHER things.

AND THE train pulled out.

AND THEY stood.

ON THE back platform.

AND WERE a perfect picture.

OF JOY and bliss.

AND THEY went to Chicago.

AND FROM there

TO NEW YORK.

AND THE next day.

THE YWENT out for a walk.

AND CAME to the park.

AND SAW the lake.

AND THE groom.

WAS A dual game sport.

SO HE hired a boat.

AND THEY went out.

FOR A long row.

AND WHEN they returned.

TO THEIR hotel.

THE BRIDE bought.

A LOT of post cards.

TO SEND to her friends.

AND RELATIVES.

TO LET them know.

THAT THEY were still alive.

AND WERE seeing.

ALL THE sights.

IN THE big city.

AND ENJOYING their trip.

TO THE fullest degree.

IN EVERY particular.

AND THE following morning.

THE BRIDES mother.

RECEIVED ONE of the cards.

AND ON it was written.

"HAD GRAND row.

"BEFORE GOING to bed."

AND THE old lady.

READ THE card and sighed.

"GOOD GRACEOUS.

"I DIDN'T think.

"THAT THEY'D begin quarrelling.

"THIS EARLY in the game."

YOURS TRULY.

CENOTAPH FOR BRITISH DEAD

(Correspondence Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Proposed that the body of an unidentified soldier be transferred from France and given burial with due pomp and ceremony in Westminster Abbey as a memorial to Britain's dead, was voiced in the house of commons
when Colonel W. W. Ashley, a unionist member, asked whether the government would do this. Andrew Bonar Law, lord privy seal, in reply said:

"In my opinion the feeling on this question, with which not only the government but the whole nation deeply sympathizes, is carried out in a more expressive way by the decision to reproduce in a permanent form the cenotaph in Whitehall.
It is as its name implies, is a memorial to all those citizens of the empire of every creed and rank who gave their lives for their country."

PARIS HAS NEW CENSOR OF FILMS

(Correspondence Associated Press)

PARIS, Nov. 12.—A new film censor will be in office in France beginning January 1 next. An examining committee, which takes the place of the old police censorship, has been appointed. Senator Maurice Faure, some leading theatrical and literary authorities, and Pathe
and Gaumont, the leading French film makers, are members of the board.

SUMMONS

In the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Nye.
Clementine Chopp, Plaintiff, vs.
Steve Chopp, Defendant.
The State of Nevada sends greeting to said defendant, Steve Chopp.
You are hereby summoned to appear within ten days after the service upon you of this summons if served in said county, or within twenty days if served out of said county but within said Judicial District, and in all other cases within forty days, (exclusive of the day of service), and defend the above entitled action. This action is brought to dissolve the bonds of matrimony existing between you and the plaintiff
upon the grounds of extreme cruelty and for equitable relief as more particularly described in the complaint
filed in said action.
Dated Oct. 11, 1919.

Eureka-Climax Mining Company

Offers a Limited Amount of Treasury
Stock at 15 Cents per Share.

Capital stock, 1,000,000 shares; fully paid and non-assessable. Par Value 15 cents. Treasury stock, 500,000 shares. The company owns the Deadbroke, New Year and Dugout Mines, approximately 70 acres. These mines have produced over $100,000 worth of rich ore. They are located on Prospect Mountain, the "high-grade" section of the Eureka Mining Dist.

While the Eureka-Croesus Mining company as such owns no interest in the Eureka-Climax Mining company, those who own the controlling interest in the Eureka-Croesus are largely interested in the Eureka-Climax, and all of its mining operations will be conducted by the technical staff of the Eureka-Croesus. The Secretary and Treasurer of the Eureka-Climax Mining company is Assistant Secretary and Treasurer of the Eureka-Croesus, under whose supervision the accounts and books of the company will be kept, in the office of the Eureka-Croesus Mining Company at Eureka.

Eugene Davis of the Eureka-Croesus Mining company has taken a large interest in the Eureka-Climax and will give it the same energy and push that has made possible the rapid development of the Eureka-Croesus properties.

The New Year and Deadbroke properties of the Eureka-Climax Company adjoins the holdings of the famous Diamond mine, one of the largest producers and shippers of high grade ore in Eureka. Work will start at once on the Deadbroke. The Stock will be listed on the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

-a Liberal Education!

ALREADY—at the very moment you read this—a thousand particularly intelligent men and women are asking their waiters for Hearst's for November. A note by minute and hour by hour—all over the U. S. and Europe. This will continue until 500,000 of the most progressive magazine readers have secured their copies.

The others, disappointed, will have to wait until next month—or be satisfied with a lesser magazine.

YOU, perhaps, already have your November number. You have looked at the Table of Contents. Thackeray, Maeterlinck, Conan Doyle, G. K. Chesterton. Or nearer home: Judge E. H. Clegg, head of U. S. Secret Service, "Something More Than the Pay Envelope." Or B. C. Forbes, K. C. B., Wall Street, Dr. Frank Crane. Or you have, maybe, turned first to the Art—Play—Book—Science—of the Month. One thing is certain, you have noticed the real authority of Hearst's—its splendid serious side.

BUT—you say—you buy a magazine for its fiction. Good! Here in Hearst's for November are stories by Robert A. Heinlein, Richard Washburn Child, Edgar Somers Roche, and Bruno Lussan. Arthur S. Barker, Edwin Bulmer and George Morris. Besides these are three English writers: E. B. Bailey, Denis Vane, E. F. Rieu.
Oppenheim—as well as Maeterlinck, and the modern French writers. All these and several others in selected stories—stories that will make you think!

IF you don't particularly want for a magazine that will make you think—if you are not interested in a magazine a bit beyond the ordinary—you won't want Hearst's this month or any other. BUT, if you want the works of the world's great writers if you want the words of the world's real leaders; if you want the thoughts of the world's great thinkers; don't fail to make sure each month—starting today with November of getting your regular copy of
